

Alex Pigao : Philippine Fashion Week Holiday 2010

Tony Sy for Runway2Reality.com

European couture takes center stage in Alex Pigao's Holiday 2010 offering for this season's Philippine Fashion Week. Each piece features a minimalist, tailored design cut from luxurious fabric, made with sophisticated, cosmopolitan styling and impeccable craftsmanship.

Boasting of designs that are "flirty but not shy", Pigao's creations impressively manage to maintain a level of comfort and versatility that is distinctly Pinoy, despite its inspiration. The overall result is an aesthetically pleasing collection that is both fashionable and wearable.
